Mayor's Message

HAPPY HOLIDAYS to everyone! It's that time of year when everyone has more things to do in a single day than most of us would try to accomplish in a week. Parties to plan, places to go, and those relatives that normally never come around suddenly show up for a free meal. Kids are flying off the walls because they know what time of year it is. Its turkey with all the trimmings and gifts that magically make their way to the tree. Oh what a great time to celebrate!

I've noticed that sometimes we let the spirit of the holidays be tarnished by all the confusion of shopping, partying, and feeling like we don't even have the time to breath. Well I have some advice for those who will listen; don't sweat the small stuff. I have decided that kids would rather play with the box that the toy comes in more than the toy itself. We worry too much about what to buy for people who we don't even like in the first place. We spend way too much money on gifts that take us the rest of the year to pay for. Credit cards get used too much and come the first of the year, we realize we should have done things differently. Well here is my take on this: You don't have to give a gift to everyone. Most would rather have your time and a visit than a gift they have to store and try to sell at a garage sale later. So what I'm saying is: Give your time not your money. Don't finance a smile today for a year's worth of payments. Take your neighbors on a tour through the city and see the beautiful lights and displays for the holiday season. Each of the City buildings are lit along with some great homes throughout the City. Take your neighbors a gift certificate for service from your family for free snow removal and a cup of hot chocolate. Don't worry about who has the best neighbor gifts. The best gifts are your time.

I just want to wish everyone a Happy Holiday and may next year bring you health, wealth, and happiness.

Outstanding Lehi Citizen

Mayor Bert Wilson has chosen Philip Wasden as the November 2013 Outstanding Lehi Citizen. This award is reserved for Lehi citizens who have made a significant effort to make Lehi a better place or performed some other noble feat. To commemorate this achievement, Phil was awarded a plaque at the November 19 City Council meeting.

Phil moved to Lehi 10 years ago and since that time has been a constant figure at the Lehi Legacy Center. Fitness has always been a part of his life and now he competes professionally in the Free Throw and 3 Point competition in the Huntsman World Senior Games. Participants for the Games come from all over the world and in the years he has been competing, Phil has placed fourth four times and in 2011 and again in 2013 Phil placed third and earned a bronze medal. This year Phil made 24 of his 25 free-throws and 4 of his 6 three-point shots. Phil's not done yet though. He's already training for next year and looks forward to one day bringing home the gold.

Not only is Phil an amazing athlete, but he is a truly caring person as well. After spending nearly every morning in the Legacy Center for 10 years, he has befriended everyone there and knows many of the regulars by name including patrons, custodians, front desk staff, instructors, and directors.

If you know Phil, you've likely heard him say, "I love you more." Those were the last words his wife Joyce said to him before she passed away and it is now how Phil says goodbye. "I never want to get caught in a situation where I say 'I wish I would have..... I wish I could have....' I always want the people I care about to know that [I care] and hear that before I check out." So on behalf of Phil to everyone reading this, I love you more.

Thank you Phil for being a great example to all of us. We applaud your efforts in representing Lehi at the Huntsman Games and appreciate the care you show to everyone you meet. You truly make Lehi a better place to live.

Do you know someone you believe is worthy of this award? Nominate them by going to Lehi-ut.gov -> Residents-> Outstanding Lehi Citizen Award. You can also read the rest of Phil's story there.

Library News & Events

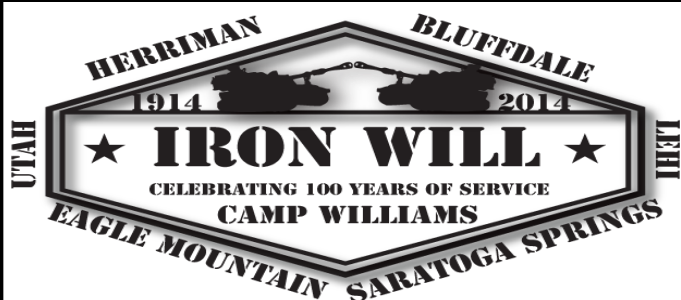

Bring the holiday spirit into your home by checking out Christmas CD's, DVDs, and books from the library. There's nothing better than sharing a great story together just before bedtime and we have many wonderful choices available!

The library is continuing to improve and expand our digital library collection. Since July we have purchased 596 e-books and e-audiobooks through OverDrive. These items are available for checkout by going to our library webpage and clicking on the OverDrive link.

There will be no Story Time the week of Dec. 2-5. Christmas Puppet Shows will be Dec. 9-12 at 9:30, 10:30, 11:30, & 12:30. No registration required, please come! There will be no Story Time Dec. 16-Jan. 13. Visit our web-site at <http://www.lehi-ut.gov/discover/library/events> for information about programming in January.

The library will be closing early on Dec. 23 at 2:00 PM, and closed Dec. 24 & 25 for the Christmas Holiday. On Sat. Dec 28, we will be closed for inventory. We will also be closing early at 5:00 PM on Tues., Dec. 31 for New Year's Eve. We hope you have a very merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Iron Will

Camp Williams is celebrating 100 years of service and is throwing a big party to celebrate! Iron Will on May 17, 2014 will comprise family fun, mountain biking, road biking, and running events.

As a part of the event, each city is competing to get the "Fittest City Award" by having the most participants in comparison to our populations. Let's show the other cities that Lehi is the best and most fit city. To help get you motivated, we are starting the Get Fit Lehi program. See more information about Get Fit Lehi below.

Sign up now for Iron Will and make it a part of your New Years Resolution. Registration prices are currently as low as $15, but will only stay that way through January 2. Get more information and sign up at IronWillRace.com

Get Fit Lehi

2013 is almost at a close and it's time to make New Year's Resolutions for 2014. Is getting in shape one of your resolutions? Let Lehi City help with some additional motivation.

Get Fit Lehi is a program designed to get you and your family in shape and win prizes for doing it. Every time your family works out, you earn fitness tickets. Those tickets get entered into a raffle for prizes. The more your family works out, the more tickets you get. Get bonus tickets for registering for Iron Will events (see previous article). Prizes include money towards your power bill, Legacy Center passes, movie gift certificates, Hutchings Museum passes, Thanksgiving Point passes, and more.

To sign up, visit Lehi-ut.gov and click on ->Discover -> Get Fit Lehi.

Lehi City Historical Archives

The Lehi City Historical Archives is trying to compile the names of Lehi residents who served in Operation Desert Storm and those who are serving in the current Iraq and Afghanistan War on Terrorism. If any of you know a person that lives or has lived in Lehi that has served in these wars, please email their name and the years they served to LehiHistory@gmail.com.

The Archives is also in need of a scanner/copier machine and several bookcases. Unfortunately, we don't have the budget to make these items a reality. We are asking each family to considering helping in this effort by making an extra $1 donation on your power bill for the next five months or one donation of $5. Be sure to designate that the money should go to the Historical Archives. Thank you for all the support.
